2. Bring a list of the rabbits you intend to show at the fair: Breed, Tattoo Number, Gender, and Age. The rabbits you declare to show must have been listed during entry registration (due June 1, 2025). You do not need to bring the actual rabbit with you, just have the information ready so you can declare which rabbits will be shown. If the rabbit was not registered during entries, it cannot show at the fair. The rabbits which are not on display at the fair can be brought in on the show day and kept in a rabbit carrier for the day. It will go home with you at the end of the show. These rabbits can be brought back the following day for the Open Show. If your rabbit wins Grand or Reserve Grand Champion in its show (Meat Pen, Single Fryer, Home Grown, or Breeding), it must remain on the grounds for the remainder of the fair. It will need to be kept in the Champion cages set-up in the Rabbit Barn.
3. You do not need to bring any market rabbits during this time (Meat Pens or Single Fryers) unless you have chosen to house your market rabbits at the fair. Market rabbits will be checked-in and weighed-in on the day of the show (Saturday). Market rabbit exhibitors MUST check in on Thursday with what is being shown along with tattoos.

- At check-in, the sex (buck or doe) may be changed for junior-aged (under 6 months) rabbits only. No other changes can be made to the rabbits registered.
